A Reading from Isaiah 9:2-7 |

Reader: A Reading from Isaiah.

The people who walked in darkness have seen a great light;
those who lived in a land of deep darkness--
on them light has shined.
You have multiplied the nation,
you have increased its joy;
they rejoice before you
as with joy at the harvest,
as people exult when dividing plunder.
For the yoke of their burden,
and the bar across their shoulders,
the rod of their oppressor,
you have broken as on the day of Midian.
For all the boots of the tramping warriors and all the garments rolled in blood shall be burned as fuel for the fire.
For a child has been born for us,
a son given to us;
authority rests upon his shoulders;
and he is named
Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
His authority shall grow continually,
and there shall be endless peace
for the throne of David and his kingdom.
He will establish and uphold it with justice and with righteousness from this time onward and forevermore.
The zeal of the LORD of hosts will do this.

Reader: The word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The following psalm is read responsively by half-verse.

Psalm 96 | Cantate Domino

Sing to the LORD a new song; *
sing to the LORD, all the whole earth.

Sing to the LORD and bless his Name; *
proclaim the good news of his salvation from day to day.

Declare his glory among the nations *
and his wonders among all peoples.

For great is the LORD and greatly to be praised; *
he is more to be feared than all gods.

Antiphon

As for all the gods of the nations, they are but idols; *
but it is the LORD who made the heavens.

Oh, the majesty and magnificence of his presence! *
Oh, the power and the splendor of his sanctuary!

Ascribe to the LORD, you families of the peoples; *
ascribe to the LORD honor and power.

Ascribe to the LORD the honor due his Name; *
bring offerings and come into his courts.

Antiphon

Worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness; *
let the whole earth tremble before him.

Tell it out among the nations: "The LORD is King! *
he has made the world so firm that it cannot be moved;
he will judge the peoples with equity."

Let the heavens rejoice, and let the earth be glad;
let the sea thunder and all that is in it; *
let the field be joyful and all that is therein.

Then shall all the trees of the wood shout for joy before the LORD when he comes, *
when he comes to judge the earth.

He will judge the world with righteousness *
and the peoples with his truth.

Antiphon

Reader: A Reading from Titus.

For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all, training us to renounce impiety and worldly passions, and in the present age to live lives that are self-controlled, upright, and godly, while we wait for the blessed hope and the manifestation of the glory of our great God and Savior, Jesus Christ. He it is who gave himself for us that he might redeem us from all iniquity and purify for himself a people of his own who are zealous for good deeds.

Reader: The Word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The people stand as able for the singing of the hymn and the reading of the Gospel.

The Gospel | Luke 2:1-14(15-20)

Deacon: The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Luke.

People: Glory to you, Lord Christ.

In those days a decree went out from Emperor Augustus that all the world should be registered. This was the first registration and was taken while Quirinius was governor of Syria. All went to their own towns to be registered. Joseph also went from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to the city of David called Bethlehem, because he was descended from the house and family of David. He went to be registered with Mary, to whom he was engaged and who was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for her to deliver her child. And she gave birth to her firstborn son and wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a manger, because there was no place for them in the inn.

In that region there were shepherds living in the fields, keeping watch over their flock by night. Then an angel of the Lord stood before them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid; for see-- I am bringing you good news of great joy for all the people: to you is born this day in the city of David a Savior, who is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign for you: you will find a child wrapped in bands of cloth and lying in a manger." And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host, praising God and saying,

"Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

When the angels had left them and gone into heaven, the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go now to Bethlehem and see this thing that has taken place, which the Lord has made known to us." So they went with haste and found Mary and Joseph, and the child lying in the manger. When they saw this, they made known what had been told them about this child; and all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds told them. But Mary treasured all these words and pondered them in her heart. The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all they had heard and seen, as it had been told them.

Deacon: The Gospel of the Lord.

People: Praise to you, Lord Christ.

The people may be seated at the invitation of the preacher.

Sermon | The Rev'd Emmanuel Ato Mercer, Rector

All:

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life,
who proceeds from the Father and the Son.
With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
He has spoken through the Prophets.
We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

This Christmas, Lord, we give thanks that you have looked with favor upon your people, sending your only son to walk among us, offering us forgiveness and salvation. We pray: "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

Jesus called us to follow his way and be your Church. We pray for all who are part of the Church Universal and all whose faith is known to you alone. We pray those who've yet to encounter the glorious love of God may come to know you. We ask your blessings for The Episcopal Church in the Philippines; St. John's, Deer Park; St. Matthew's, Oakland; St. Peter's, Lonaconing; and for our ordained leaders, Michael, Eugene, Carrie, Manny, and Denise. "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

We pray the peace of God which passes all understanding may blanket the world, bringing an end to all violence, ignorance, and hatred. We ask that you guide the nation's leaders to strive for peace and justice. As you watched over Joseph and Mary on their long journey to Bethlehem, we ask that you watch over all refugees around the world. We ask that you protect and guide all serving in the military, especially Kofi Abdallah and Conner Warlow. "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

Lord, we lift up with gratitude the organizations within our community that strive to make a difference in answering your command to love our neighbors: FISH, Grassroots Crisis Center, Columbia Community Care, The Dorsey Day Center, Springfield Hospital, Bridges to Housing Stability, Dream Builders, and many more. "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

O God, those who are ill, mourning, scared, and alone may find Christmas a difficult time; we ask that you surround them with your boundless comfort, praying especially for Mollie, Virginia, Nathan, Jim, Stephen, Debbie, Sarah, Doug, Mary Ann, Lexi, Jon, Dennis, Barbara, Sherry, Tim, Christine, Patricia, Cindy, Roberta, Samuel, Ashley, Alta, Farris, Mildred, Nell, and those we now name. O Christ, our Savior, who gave us new life in you, we pray for all who have passed knowing that you welcome them into eternal life, especially for Jeremiah Darden and those we now name. We pray: "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

As we celebrate your birth, Jesus, we give thanks for all who are visiting with us today. We pray you'll be enriched by worshipping with us as your presence enriches us. We give thanks for those who'll celebrate their birthday, baptismal anniversary, or wedding anniversary this week: Gardiner, Gail, Jonathan, Kristen, Tanis, Ben, Nii, Stephen, Paul, Tanner, James & Catherine; Melanie; Jo Emily & Nathaniel Knox and Pamela & Shannon Pruitt "Glory to God in the highest heaven, and on earth peace among those whom he favors!"

"In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God... And the Word became flesh and lived among us..." May we continue to follow in Jesus' way, embodying God's love and sharing it with all whom we encounter. Amen.

THE GREAT THANKSGIVING

Eucharistic Prayer B |

Celebrant People
The Lord be with you. And al - so with you.

Celebrant People
Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Celebrant: It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth.

Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who forever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

The people stand or kneel.

Then the Celebrant continues

We give thanks to you, O God, for the goodness and love which you have made known to us in creation; in the calling of Israel to be your people; in your Word spoken through the prophets; and above all in the Word made flesh, Jesus, your Son. For in these last days you sent him to be incarnate from the Virgin Mary, to be the Savior and Redeemer of the world. In him, you have delivered us from evil, and made us worthy to stand before you. In him, you have brought us out of error into truth, out of sin into righteousness, out of death into life.

At the following words concerning the bread, the Celebrant is to hold it, or to lay a hand upon it; and at the words concerning the cup, to hold or place a hand upon the cup and any other vessel containing wine to be consecrated.

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread; and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his disciples, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper he took the cup of wine; and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, according to his command, O Father,

Celebrant and People: We remember his death,
We proclaim his resurrection,
We await his coming in glory.

The Celebrant continues

And we offer our sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to you, O Lord of all; presenting to you, from your creation, this bread and this wine.

We pray you, gracious God, to send your Holy Spirit upon these gifts that they may be the Sacrament of the Body of Christ and his Blood of the new Covenant. Unite us to your Son in his sacrifice, that we may be acceptable through him, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit. In the fullness of time, put all things in subjection under your Christ, and bring us to that heavenly country where all your saints, we may enter the everlasting heritage of your sons and daughters; through Jesus Christ our Lord, the firstborn of all creation, the head of the Church, and the author of our salvation.

By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and forever. AMEN.

The Lord's Prayer |

Celebrant: And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say,

All: Our Father,
 who art in heaven,
 hallowed be thy Name,
 thy kingdom come,
 thy will be done,
 on earth as it is in heaven.
 Give us this day our daily bread.
 And forgive us our trespasses,
 as we forgive those who trespass against us.
 And lead us not into temptation,
 but deliver us from evil.
 For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory,
 forever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread |

Celebrant: Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People: Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

Wherever you are in your spiritual journey, you are welcome at God's table.

You may receive just the bread if you prefer.

If you wish, the Eucharistic minister may take the bread from your hand, dip it in the wine and give it back to you.

If you do not wish to take Communion, you may come forward and cross your arms over your chest to receive a blessing.

If you would like Communion brought to you, please let an usher know.

Consecrated gluten-free wafers are available.

The inaugural FWF for 2024 will ring in the New Year in style, with a community potluck dinner and games of all sorts! This is also the only FWF we have until after Lent and Easter, so be sure to join us and unwind for a few hours after the holiday madness subsides. Please bring a dish that your family typically enjoys, and share your holiday stories! As mentioned, this will be the only FWF gathering until the spring, but we're still very busy! We hope that you will attend the Shrove Tuesday Pancake Supper on February 13th and the Wednesday Lenten Supper Series throughout late February and March. Stay tuned for more on those gatherings in the new year.

Meals Ministry

The Stewardship season focuses on the giving of our time, talent, and treasure, and one way to do so is by lending a hand to those in need. Christ Church's Pastoral Care Commission is growing its Meals Ministry to ensure that someone is always available to provide a meal to those who need one. If you would like to help, or if you know someone in need of this service, please speak with Deacon Denise or email her at deacondenise@christchurchcolumbia.org.

Help Us Plan Christ Church's 300th Birthday

We are gathering and planning for Christ Church's 300th year - such an important milestone for our church - and we want participation and ideas from as many of us as possible. There are a variety of committees that you can serve on and so we would like to encourage everyone to consider being a part of this historic occasion. If you have ideas, are interested in assisting, or need more information, please speak with Robin Bradley or email 300@christchurchcolumbia.org.

Columbia Community Care Takes a Holiday Break and accepts Donation of High-Demand Diapers and Baby Wipes from Christ Church

Christ Church has met the requests of Columbia Community Care (CCC) for a greater supply of baby wipes and large diapers. "We give out so many every weekend, mostly sizes 3 through 6," the organization's pantry manager, April Lee, told Christ Church Outreach Commission member Melanie Yaksich. In response, we made two drop-offs at the CCC pantry, taking several boxes of parishioners' donations on Dec. 9 and multiple boxes of diapers and wipes on Dec. 13 (see photos).

That dropoff included seven boxes of diapers and dozens of packages of wipes, which the Outreach Commission approved for purchase at $277. These are vestry-approved Outreach budget funds derived from parishioners' donations to Christ Church. From the Outreach Commission on behalf of Howard County families in need, please accept this hearty "Thank You!"

CCC has announced that its distribution sites will close on Saturday, Dec. 23, and on Saturday, Dec. 30, for the holidays. The CCC shoppers pantry will close on Saturday, Dec. 23, but will reopen for home deliveries on Saturday, Dec. 30. Check the CCC Facebook Group for updates.

CCC also announced that it has paused taking new orders for home deliveries until it can fulfill a backlog of 160-plus orders in its queue. At the same time, CCC made a plea for volunteers to make deliveries, as soon as Dec. 30 or in January. To volunteer, please go to this CCC SignUpGenius link.

Or, to help CCC keep up its inventory of diapers and wipes, put them along with sanitary and personal care items in the yellow bin, marked “CCC,” inside the Parish Hall. Our point of contact is Leigh Smith, who monitors the bin and delivers its contents.

Friends of Sabina Invites a Parishioner to Sponsor 15-year-old Lydia

Leaders of the nonprofit, Friends of Sabina (FOS), are currently seeking a sponsor for 15-year-old Lydia, whose destitute family resorted to interrupting her schooling to help make ends meet. The girl went to Uganda’s capital, Kampala, to work as a housemaid. But now she has returned home to Sanje, Uganda, and re-enrolled at Sabina Boarding Primary School, which Christ Church supports through the Outreach Commission.

“She has high potential as she has always placed high in her class,” according to FOS, which since taking over the operation of Sabina strives to help students excel in their studies despite personal obstacles. Lydia’s favorite subject is English and her favorite hobby is netball (see photo). She comes from a family of five whose father is deceased and whose mother works as a food vendor. For information, please email Christ Church Outreach at outreach@christchurchcolumbia.org.

Sponsors commit to fund an annual scholarship, which for a primary-level student such as Lydia, costs $50 a month or $600 a year. Another goal is to form relationships, like family across the miles. FOS helps accomplish that goal through its newsletters and by encouraging an exchange of letters and occasional video calls. FOS leader Ann Marie Davis, while on-site in Uganda, arranged a video call with sponsors a few days ago.

A group of parishioners began to sponsor nine students at Sabina in 2020 and embraced two more earlier this year. Find a photo collage of seven of the nine children, pictured in 2020, on the FOS page of the Christ Church website. Sponsorship of Roger, 10, and Phionah, 15, came about in July during a Zoom session with parishioners. See it on our website: “An Incredibly Heartwarming Zoom Recap with Friends of Sabina”.

A highlight of that session was a children’s choir performance, posted as FOS Choir July 23, 2023 on the Christ Church YouTube channel. “The children’s choir is lovely; we enjoy listening to them on campus,” says Davis, noting the rendition of “Sanctus-Latin” had been part of a prize-winning repertoire during a regional competition.

Please Donate All Kinds of Grocery Non-Perishables and Toiletries to FISH

FISH of Howard County needs non-perishable foods and toiletries. FISH provides committed support to select families in need. Please put donations in the basket at the altar or in the marked yellow bin on the breezeway between Old Brick and Parish Hall. The neighbors you help give thanks for all you do in their support.

DreamBuilders: Save the Date!

DreamBuilders will be having its General Meeting on Sunday, February 4th from 3-5 p.m. at Temple Isaiah in Fulton. We will be talking about our upcoming Kentucky trip this June, when we hope to “blitz build” THREE Houses in one week! It’s going to be great fun, and we’ve got lots of pictures from last summer’s trip to show you at the meeting, so mark your calendars - see you there!

Remember Christ Church in Your End-of-Year Giving

As we prepare for Christmas and the beginning of the New Year, it is our hope that you will be able to gather with family and friends to celebrate the season.

Although it has been a long and difficult year, we also give thanks, especially during this season of gratitude and joy, and we ask you to consider how Christ Church has touched your life and the lives of your loved ones. We pray that you will reflect on how the different ministries that abound here at Christ Church have touched someone and changed their lives and that you will consider a gift to Christ Church as part of your end-of-year giving.

Christ Church depends on your faithful and generous support in transforming lives. Your generosity makes it possible for Christ Church to offer a faithful nurturing space, enriching worship for children and adults, and a place of deep comfort. Your giving allows Christ Church to thrive and grow during uncertain and difficult times. More importantly, your giving ensures that Christ Church continues its life-sustaining ministries.

We invite you to prayerfully consider supporting Christ Church with a gift:

Christmas Tradition

In a few days, we will be celebrating Christmas. Many of us would be traveling to be with family and friends. It is a very special time of the year, and I am so glad that our lives cross other lives and together we celebrate the joy of being together, as family, friends or even strangers. The spirit of the season is so riveting and the joy with which children make the best of the season is what makes it all worthwhile.

I was chatting with a group of friends the other day and one of the things we talked about was family Christmas traditions. That sounded a little strange to me because I don't remember any family tradition at Christmas when I was growing up. I remember that on Christmas Eve and Christmas Day, we went to church, and upon our return, had some food, which was usually rice with chicken stew, a bottle of soda, crackers, and candy. For many of our neighbors, the bottle of soda was the only soda that they had in a year.

One of them asked if we (my siblings and I) received gifts. Indeed, we received Christmas gifts, but these were typically clothes or shoes, and we usually got them before Christmas so we could wear them to Church on Christmas Day. Apart from that, there was nothing like wrapping gifts, putting them under a Christmas tree, exchanging the gifts, and unwrapping them on Boxing Day.

I shared that story in another conversation about Christmas traditions with a friend, who then shared her family Christmas tradition with me. Her family exchanged gifts on Boxing Day, and not on Christmas Day, and when the family relocated to the United States, they kept their tradition of wrapping gifts, putting them under a Christmas Tree, exchanging the gifts, and unwrapping them on Boxing Day, and not on Christmas Day. Although her family now live in different places across this country, they have largely kept to that Christmas tradition of exchanging gifts on Boxing Day.

The idea of keeping to that tradition of exchanging gifts on Boxing Day sounded intriguing. In spite of what their American neighbors did, they stuck to their tradition. The story reminded me of the extent to which tradition shapes and influences our lives;-we get used to a particular way of doing things, and so long as we find great value in it, we stick to it - no matter what.

Although my family didn't have a Christmas tradition, I do have one now. On Christmas Day, my children wake up very early in the morning and unwrap their gifts. It is always a joy to see the excitement on their faces - especially when they get the stuff that they asked for. And no matter how old they are, they still scream when they unwrap their gifts.

Christ Church has many Christmas traditions - one of which is the Angel Tree. A few days ago, on behalf of Christ Church, some of our Outreach team prepared all the items that many of you donated and sent them to the Salvation Army to be given to the twelve assigned children. Like my children and many others, these 12 could now have wrapped gifts under their Christmas trees - if that might be their tradition, too. I am thankful that, with your generous support, we helped their Christmas tradition come alive.

If I may ask - are you alone this Christmas? What is your Christmas tradition? Are you planning on being with your family? Have you purchased all your gifts? Do you have them wrapped and ready for the Christmas tree?

For me, the wonderful thing about Christmas is the tradition that each family develops and keeps over time. It is the tradition that holds and binds a family together so that even in times when we have lost family members, are far from our families, or perhaps estranged from others within our families, we may still remember the tradition that once connected us and renewed our love for one another.

For all the commercialization of Christmas, the underpinning reality is that the ability to give and receive gifts is at the heart of what Christmas is about. We gather to celebrate Christmas because God gave God's self to us in the person of Jesus Christ. And we gather to celebrate Christmas because we faithfully received the gift of Jesus Christ that God gave to us. And with our gifts to each other, we express that same spirit of giving and receiving as a representation of the very first act of God.

I am very grateful for this community of faith and all it represents. I am grateful for the gift of you - God's masterpiece. I am grateful for the gift of your families and the joy you all bring to this place. I am grateful for your faithfulness. I am grateful for the Christmas traditions you hold dear and the ones that connect you with your loved ones and many others. I am grateful to God for everything.

Although it has been a difficult year, I'd like to add that despite all our challenges, this Christmas will be special because you chose to honor your loved ones and others. You chose to remember and to hold on to the joy of a Christmas tradition - the joy of giving and receiving the unquenchable gift of love.

I wish you a very Merry Christmas.

The Jesse Tree Takes Us to Christmas Eve!

The Jesse Tree, a Christ Church tradition that honors the genealogy of Jesus Christ, continues with two new characters each day between now and Christmas Eve. Our own Jesse Tree, complete with beautiful hand-made ornaments by artist Jenn Lavanish, is in the Narthex, and Mother Marcia Davenport posts a brief video explaining each Jesse Tree character and lesson. Those who wish to honor this wonderful, daily tradition will find a brief Scripture reading and an ornament template to print, decorate, and display on a Jesse Tree of their own on our website throughout Advent. You can find all this at www.christchurchcolumbia.org/jessetree.
